

Databases - Year Four

Vocabulary	Word Definition
Data	A collection of information, gathered by observation, questioning or measurement. • data is often organised in graphs or charts for analysis and, may include facts, numbers or measurements.
Questionnaire	A set of questions to be asked of a number of people usually in order to gather information or opinions
Grouping	To arrange in, put into, or form a unit or group .
Branching database	Sometimes called a binary tree. This is a way of classifying a group of objects.

Questions

1. Collect your own data
2. Record in a tally chart
3. Represent your data in different ways e.g. bar charts, pie charts, pictograms
4. Complete a branching database

