

Web Page Creation - Year Six

Vocabulary	Word Definition
HTML Code	HTML stands for Hypertext Markup Language, the foundational language used to create websites and web documents. HTML defines the meaning and structure of web content.
Media	The communication tools used to store or deliver information such as the news, cinema, photographs, radio, etc.
Copyright	The legal right to be the only one to reproduce, own, publish, and sell the contents of somebody's work.
Hyperlink	A link that you can click on that directs you to another page/part of a document.
Website Navigation	Navigating a network of information resources in the World Wide Web , which is organized as hypertext or hypermedia.

Questions

1. What different types of media are used on websites?
2. What are the common features of a webpage?
3. What is meant by the term 'fair use'?
4. What is the implication of linking to content owned by others?

