

The Indus Valley

Key vocabulary

River Indus	A huge river in South Asia that originates in China, runs through Pakistan and into the Arabian Sea merchant	A person who buys or sells goods clay seals	Imprints of images showing everyday life made in clay citadel	A strong building in a city where people could shelter for safety well	A man-made hole dug into the ground for sourcing water oxen	Large cattle used in agriculture terracotta	A brownish red clay that has been baked and can be used to make pots, statues and tiles carnelian beads	A reddish translucent gemstone used in jewellery barter	Exchanging goods for other goods rather than selling them for money government	The group who are responsible for making decisions that affect a country/state

The remains of Mohenjo-Daro a city built Symbols on seals stamped into clay

Indus Valley civilisations

