

Video Editing - Year Five

Vocabulary	Word Definition
Visual media	The notion of images and symbols that can be read. Things that you can see e.g. videos, pictures, writing.
Audio media	Audio media means pre-recorded magnetic tapes that enable you to hear a sound; for example music and talking on the radio.
Reshooting	To film something again.
Video editing	Rearranging and improving video shots.

Questions

1. How can you edit a video?
2. What are the benefits of adding audio to a video?
3. Why is it important to do a reshoot?
4. What skills have you learned whilst video editing?

Zooming and Cropping.

